

LOCKHEED MARTIN AGREES TO ACQUIRE SAVI TECHNOLOGY

PURCHASE OF ACTIVE RFID SUPPLIER ENHANCES CAPABILITIES IN GLOBAL FOCUSED LOGISTICS

Bethesda, Md., May 4, 2006 -- Lockheed Martin Corporation [NYSE:LMT] today announced it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire Savi Technology, Inc. (Savi), a provider of active radio frequency identification (RFID) solutions. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Savi, based in Sunnyvale, Calif., has developed innovative logistics solutions that track in-transit asset shipments in a secure, accurate and timely manner. Its full line of hardware and software products have been implemented by the U.S. Department of Defense, international defense agencies, civil agencies and commercial enterprises to monitor cargo shipments globally. Savi's products include active RFID asset tags, data rich high performance tags, sensor tags that monitor security and environmental conditions and related fixed and mobile readers. The company's fully integrated site and enterprise software products provide customers a complete solution for tracking shipments worldwide. Founded in 1989, Savi employs approximately 300 people.

"Savi's talented team of employees has successfully developed a complete line of active RFID solutions. The acquisition of this innovative company is consistent with our strategy of making investments that significantly enhance the capabilities we can offer our customers," said Bob Stevens, Lockheed Martin's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer.

"For over 15 years the Savi team has worked with customers to design solutions that locate, manage and secure assets and shipments in complex global supply chains. We are delighted to be joining Lockheed Martin, one of the world's premier technology companies. Our customers and employees will significantly benefit from the enhanced capabilities of this combination," said Vic Verma, Chief Executive Officer of Savi.

The boards of directors of both Lockheed Martin and Savi's parent company, Infolink Systems, Inc., have approved the transaction, which is subject to customary closing conditions (including antitrust review), and is expected to close in the second quarter. Savi will be a wholly owned subsidiary of Lockheed Martin managed by Lockheed Martin Integrated Systems & Solutions, Gaithersburg, Md.

Headquartered in Bethesda, Md., Lockheed Martin employs about 135,000 people worldwide and is principally engaged in the research, design, development, manufacture, integration and sustainment of advanced technology systems, products and services. The corporation reported 2005 sales of $37.2 billion.

Contact:

Media Contact: Lockheed Martin Corporation: Jeff Adams (301) 897-6308; e-mail Jeffery.adams@lmco.com

For additional information, visit our website: <http://www.lockheedmartin.com>

LOCKHEED MARTIN Safe Harbor Statement / Forward-Looking Statements:
Some of the statements contained in this press release may be considered "forward-looking statements" under the federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to statements regarding the timing and likelihood of closing. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to our ability to successfully integrate acquired businesses, obtain regulatory approval, achieve desired synergies, and other risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in Lockheed Martin's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All information in this release is as of May 4, 2006. Lockheed Martin disclaims any duty to update forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events, actual results or changes in expectations.